

BROWN BAG LUNCH

2013 SPRING SERIES

Dutcher Community Room Saratoga Springs Public Library

March 14th , Noon - 1 o'clock

"Sanford Stud Farm"

Sam Hildebrandt will talk about the Sanford Stud Farm, originally known as Hurricana Stock Farm in Amsterdam, NY, and its change from a "diversion" for international carpet magnate, Stephen Sanford.

April 11th, Noon - 1 o'clock

"Collecting Saratoga: The Adventures of Minnie Clark Bolster"

Join local historian and author Minnie Bolster for a walk down memory lane as she talks with Dave Patterson about her extensive collection of Saratoga memorabilia and the stories of how her collection and the city she loves have changed over the years.

May 9th, Noon - 1 o'clock

"Dunson, War Horse Program, & Gettysburg with Doubleday"

In keeping with Memorial Day, Saratogian reporter Paul Post will give a presentation about local soldiers and military historic sites. He will be joined by Robert Nevins, founder of the Saratoga War Horse program.

June 13th

Noon - 1 o'clock

"Armchair tour of Saratoga Trunk"

Kathy Totten, Visitors Center volunteer and docent for this tour, will explore the connection between this timeless classic by Edna Ferber and all the glitz, glamour, and excitement that took place in 1880 Saratoga Springs.